HISPANIC AFFAIRS PROJECT

We are an organization dedicated to the development of leadership, community organizing, and the provision of key services for the integration of the western Colorado community.

HAP receives The Colorado Trust's Grantee Leadership Award

The Trust annually recognizes a grantee for exemplary leadership with a one-time award of $25,000, which HAP will use to support its ongoing work. HAP Executive Director Ricardo Perez accepted the award on behalf of the organization.

Ned Calogne, Executive Director and CEO of The Trust presented the Award at a reception in the Unitarian Universalist Congregation of the Grand Valley, Grand Junction the May 16 with the participation of leaders, agencies and organization representatives.

The leadership award was created in honor of John R. Moran, Jr., former long-time president and CEO of The Trust, for his devotion to improving the health and well-being of Coloradans.

Moran Award recipients are chosen for a variety of attributes, including organizational integrity, community leadership, a collaborative approach, and respect for and honoring the diversity of the people the organization serves.
